The interview was in regards to a 1975 Ford LTD 4-door, grey in color with thirty day tags that possibly had been abandoned in one of the parking lots at Channingway Apartments. The vehicle had been used in a bank robbery in Columbus, Ohio.

[redacted] did go on to advise that if the vehicle had been left abandoned [redacted] it would have been towed away by a private wrecker service after a certain amount of time. [redacted] advised that the private wrecker service used by [redacted] is BROAD AND JAMES SHELL on E. Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio. [redacted] advised that [redacted]

[redacted] was advised to contact TFO [redacted] if she was able to locate any further information and the interview was concluded at that time.

On March 8, 1996, TFO [redacted] contacted [redacted] BROAD AND JAMES SHELL telephonically and described the Ford LTD to him and inquired if the business possessed any records of towing this vehicle from the Channingway apartments after the time of the robbery. [redacted] advised that he would have to look through numerous records and would have to contact TFO [redacted] the first of the week. On March 11, 1996, [redacted] contacted TFO [redacted] telephonically and advised that he was unable to locate any records matching the description of the questioned vehicle. [redacted] advised that if their service was in fact the one that towed the vehicle that it would have been held in storage for thirty days and they would then file for a salvage title. Once the salvage title was obtained, the vehicle would then be sold to WOODY'S AUTO SALVAGE at 1988 McKinley Avenue Columbus, Ohio. [redacted] advised that he would check all the records again and would contact TFO [redacted] if any new information was found. The interview was then concluded.

Suspect in bank robberies pleads guilty

By Jim Woods
Dispatch Staff Reporter

Richard Lee Guthrie has agreed to plead guilty to robbing 14 banks and will provide information about suspected accomplices known as the Midwestern Bank Bandits, federal court documents show.

Guthrie, 38, was the first of the gang to be arrested. He was captured by Cincinnati police Jan. 15 after a brief car chase. He is in the Kenton County, Ky., jail. Another accused member of the gang, Peter K. Langan, was arrested three days later in Columbus in a shootout with law enforcement agencies.

Langan, 37, a friend of Guthrie, faces 12 federal charges in U.S. District Court in Columbus, including the robbery of the Columbus National Bank at 6121 E. Livingston Ave. on Oct. 25, 1994, and the robbery of Society National Bank in Springdale, Ohio, on June 8, 1994.

The gang openly taunted FBI agents and sent messages to reporters.

As part of a plea agreement, guilty pleas by Guthrie to bank robberies in Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Kansas, Missouri, Kentucky and Nebraska have been filed in U.S. District Court in Cincinnati.

GANG from 1C

ford, 27, and Kevin McCarthy, 18, in the Philadelphia area May 24.

Stedeford was transferred to Iowa, where he is charged with the robbery of a Des Moines bank March 29, 1995.

The FBI connected Stedeford to the Des Moines robbery through a car title found in a home on Reinhard Avenue in Columbus where Langan was arrested, court papers show.

FBI agents learned Stedeford used the alias of Dan Lane to purchase a 1978 Buick LeSabre

He is expected to enter guilty pleas to more charges, a federal official said.

Guthrie told FBI agents who interviewed him March 4-15 that he was responsible for, or aware of, 22 bank robberies committed by his group, a federal affidavit says.

U.S. Attorney Edmund A. Sargus Jr. of Columbus said he expects more arrests.

FBI agent Phillip Thomas of St. Louis said the FBI is trying to determine whether the gang used surveillance teams outside while two or three robbers entered a bank.

Most of the robberies occurred between January 1994 and December 1995. Toward the end of the spree, the gang openly taunted FBI agents and sent messages to reporters at several Midwestern newspapers.

Based on information provided by Guthrie, the FBI arrested Scott Anthony Stedefrom a Des Moines car lot.

The car was to be used as a getaway vehicle in the Des Moines robbery, but Guthrie rejected the plan because he believed Stedeford had been careless in his purchase, the affidavit stated.

Guthrie said he was introduced to Stedeford through an Aryan Nations activist, court documents say. Aryan Nations is a white supremacist organization.

He gave the FBI permission to search the Columbus house he shared with Langan, a boy-hood friend, so the agency did not have to obtain a warrant, court documents show.

Literature and videotapes for an organization called the Aryan Republican Army were found in the Columbus residence.

McCarthy was transferred to St. Louis where he is charged with participating in a bank robbery in Bridgeton, Mo., on Aug. 16, 1995.

Positive identification of McCarthy from a photo lineup was made by a witness who saw him outside the bank, an affidavit shows.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: Request SAC approval for additional storage space of BOMBROB evidence.

Details: The United States Courthouse, 85 Marconi Blvd, Columbus, Ohio has been previously designated as suitable by the SAC for the storage of BOMBROB evidence for the duration of the BOMBROB case. Currently, all BOMBROB evidence is stored in a locked, alarmed room in the basement of 85 Marconi Blvd.

The basement evidence room is now full making the storage of additional BOMBROB evidence difficult. As a result, the United States Attorney's Office has made available a locked and alarmed storage room located in their office on the forth floor of 85 Marconi Blvd. It is requested that the SAC approve the storage of evidence in this room as well.

GUTHRIE first met MARK THOMAS around April, 1987, on a routine visit to the ARYAN NATION (AN) compound at HAYDEN LAKE, IDAHO.

In 1988, GUTHRIE called [redacted] at the AN compound in [redacted] that belonged to his father's printing business. GUTHRIE stated that he recalled sending new baby clothing items to MARK THOMAS, by U.S. mail, "about a dozen times" around 1988-89. GUTHRIE knew that THOMAS could use the baby clothes for his children and each mailing had about ten to fifteen items. GUTHRIE obtained the clothing as part of his K-Mart scam, and used them as a cover when checking out more valuable items with the cashiers. GUTHRIE would not return these type items and sent some of them to THOMAS.

GUTHRIE recalled that he may have also sent small amounts of money, $200 to $300, on a few occasions, to THOMAS with the baby clothes for support of THOMAS' white supremacist cause.

GUTHRIE was questioned regarding his recollections of a meeting with THOMAS, SCOTT, and KEVIN, that occurred in November, 1994, in the vicinity of Elohim City, Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE was shown a map and clarified that he stayed at a Motel 6, located by a Waffle House Restaurant, possibly at the

FBI: Heist trail led to wh

Robbers hit 7 states, but their aim may have been bigger. A confession led authorities to Philadelphia.

By Mark Fazlollah, Michael Matza, Maureen Graham and Larry King
INQUIRER STAFF WRITERS

The young man in jeans walked onto the used-car lot in Des Moines, pointed at the white 1979 Buick LeSabre, and bought it for $750 cash.

"He didn't test-drive it, didn't even start it up," remembers Jay Helton, manager of Mr. Lee's Auto-land. "He asked me if the thing ran, and I said: 'It's a good ol' car.'"

Something about the buyer made Helton queasy. So he photocopied the man's Alabama driver's license that balmy March afternoon in 1995.

Helton still had the copy a year later, when the FBI agents came.

The Iowa car dealer's instincts were right. The man wasn't from Alabama. He was from Ardmore, Pa. — Haverford High, Class of '86.

The FBI said he and his friend, a Bustleton teenager, had fallen in with two older men from the Midwest and joined in a bank-robbery spree fueled by the antigovernment gospel of white power. Between Thanksgiving 1992 and last Christ-

Kevin McCarthy, from Bustleton

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: Items of evidence maintained in temporary vault storage (Cincinnati Headquarters) since 01/30/1996 have been listed on Bureau form (FD-192) entitled Control of General/Drug/Valuable Evidence, i.e. one silver coin, roll of pennies (50 cents), 54 cents (loose change) and $4.30 (coins within plastic container).

Details: On 07/25/1996, [redacted] advised the Writer that BOMBROB items of evidence were located in the locked, temporary storage unit. The items were sealed in plastic, contained a chain of custody tag, but were never properly entered on the Bureau inventory form (FD-192). The Writer contacted employee [redacted] and Omaha FBI employee, [redacted] (Evidence Response Team) to determine why the items lacked paperwork. Apparently, after all items seized, subsequent to Peter Langan's arrest, were transported to and inventoried at the Cincinnati Office, a number of coins were discovered inside/with several of his possessions. These coins were properly safeguarded with "chain of custody" intact, however; the inventory forms (FD-192's, commonly referred to as green sheets) already completed, were filed lacking the newly discovered coins.

PRISONER HANGS SELF: A man who pleaded guilty last week on bank robbery charges hanged himself in the Kenton County Jail today. Richard Lee Guthrie, whose last known address was Ocean City, Md., was found about 6 a.m. He had left two suicide notes, one to his attorney and one to his brother, said Allen Smith, a U.S. marshal in Columbus. Smith said Guthrie used something in his cell to hang himself, but wouldn't identify the item. He had pleaded guilty to robbing 14 banks in seven states. Police believe he was a member of a gang that was involved in bank robberies in Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Kentucky.
